Fine Arts Classes Featuring Master Artist:

Jim Howle

June 16, 17, & 18th, 2008

Jim Howle graduated from the Ringling Art School and from the very first class of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's Clown College in 1968. Touring seven years as tramp clown, "Hobo Jim", with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's Circus he performed in "The Greatest Show on Earth" and was the shows official clown artist. In 1994, Jim became an inductee in the International Clown Hall of Fame. His art work is included in the Portrait Gallery of the Smithsonian Institute and the Leningrad Gallery. We are proud and honored to have Jim as our featured art instructor.

Instruction In:

Jim will disclose his style of Realism Portraiture using oil based paints. Drawing from his experience as a clown artist to the development of his own unique technique.

For advanced, professional, or beginner. (Adults: 14 years of age or older.)
